

ICAR–NRIIPM inaugurated International Training Programme on Bioassay Methods and Nematode Pest Management

The ICAR–National Research Institute for Integrated Pest Management (ICAR–NRIIPM), New Delhi, inaugurated a Collaborative International Training Programme on Bioassay Methods for Entomopathogens and Nematode Pest Management on 5th February 2026. The programme is scheduled from February 05 to 25, 2026, bringing together researchers, academicians, and practitioners from India and Bhutan to strengthen scientific for collaboration in sustainable crop protection.

The training is sponsored by the National Plant Protection Centre, Department of Agriculture, Ministry of Agriculture & Livestock, Bhutan, in which 04 officials from NPCC, Bhutan are participating. The training underscores the shared commitment of both nations in advancing eco-friendly pest management strategies.

